Protect your SAFE money!

We have seen some shakiness in the economy lately and many people are beginning to reconsider just where they have chosen to keep the money they cannot afford to lose. Taking advantage of fixed deferred annuities is one way to protect those funds. My wife and I have chosen to protect our retirement money using an equity indexed annuity (EIA) and we are really pleased with it. I would be happy to tell you more about it in person and you can check out this link to a good video presentation that explains how they work. ### Can't I just give it my kids?

Hawaii has some of the highest number of paper millionaires in the world! Many people are land rich and cash poor. I know of homes that were purchased for a few thousand dollars that are now worth over $1,000,000. But as the potential need for Long-Term Care rises in our parent's futures, a lot of people are trying to be "do-it-yourself" long-term care planners. And a lot of critical mistakes are being made. I would like to help you avoid those mistakes and guide you through the many options involved in financing long-term care. I have an informative ebook I would like to send you if you will drop me a line requesting it. Please send \$ for Long Term Care.

Leave Your Mark on the World!

Many of my friends and clients are involved in some organization or movement that is dear to them. From sponsoring kids at YMCA camps to establishing foundations to help save endangered species, to helping build churches and schools throughout the world, there seems to be a cause for everyone to support.

I have had the honor this past year of helping several people establish long-range gifts to their favorite organizations. Through various plans and financial products we have been able to guarantee a sizeable sum for a group working with children. Another person is establishing a fully funded university chair to further his area of educational interest. And another has determined to leave $1,000,000 to his charity as a start to an endowment fund for on-going operational costs.

If you are interested in finding out how you might be able to plan long-term help for your cause, give me a call and let's visit. You will be surprised at how affordable major gifts can actually be. I have even found a way to make some of these gifts happen without spending your money! Let's talk soon - 625-3782

What's affecting your health, wealth and happiness?

I spent a few hours last month moving things around in a house. We had to move the couch a few times, add some house plants. Change the direction of some track lighting. Just a few things to make the place seem nicer - or was it more? The ancient practice of Feng Shui attempts to provide us with a guide to keeping our homes, offices, developments - whatever - in harmony with the forces of the natural environment. This in turn is supposed to create better harmony between our health, wealth and happiness. The Vancouver Sun had an interesting article back in 2002. Developers ignore Feng Shui at their peril

Have you ever wondered what your future will look like? While I cannot help you know what you will look like, I certainly can help you understand what your financial future may be. Give me a call today and see how a small fee can make a huge difference in how well prepared you will be for the future. Contact me at 625-3782 or email and let's get together really soon.

Sincerley yours,
