Financial Security Specialists Holiday Newsletter

Dear Friends

The holiday season reminds us of the blessings of memory. Memories of enchanted times, anticipating gifts, enjoying good food and welcoming the fellowship of loved ones and friends. My wish for you and your family this season is for you to cherish each memory you make this year and build them into a legacy of love to pass down from generation to generation.

From my family to yours, Merry Christmas and may God bless you.

Sincerely,

Gary and Masako Powell

He's Never Forgotten Christmas!!

The young teen sat before me, his eyes reflecting the lights of the Christmas tree. Reds and Blue, Green sparkles - the glow of the tree, played across his handsome features. In his hands he held a plain white envelope. "You see, he explained to me, this is my Dad's Christmas card to me. It comes every year and every year it is the same. Just a plain white envelope with a check inside." I thought to myself, "what a cold father - not even a note to his kid at Christmas!" "It's not what you think you know. The young man looked at me. My Dad died 7 years ago. This check comes every year at Christmas because he had a special life insurance. I was just 7 years old when he set this up. I'd trade every present I have ever gotten just to have him back for one more Christmas - but each time this check comes I know that he loved me and never wanted a Christmas to go by without reminding me."

FAMILY BUSINESS SURVEY - Click here to review the results of MassMutual's 2007 American Family Business Survey. One interesting finding of the survey: family businesses are most at risk for financial troubles centered on the lack of formal succession planning and preparation, and the personal financial issues of family business owners.

I want to help you make certain the memories you leave behind are ones that show the love you have for your family. Call me soon and let's review your plans. 808-625-3782
